Global Connections

Create a profile of your global connections by answering the questions below.

Personal Identities
What family or social roles influence your sense of who you are?

Family Connections
What global connections can you find among members of your own family? Are any family members from other countries other than your native country?

Reading Connections
What global connections can you find among the kinds of materials you like to read? Do you enjoy reading novels by foreign authors? Do you enjoy seeing plays by foreign playwrights? Do you subscribe to any newspapers or magazines based in a foreign country?

Sports and Recreation Connections
What global connections can you find among the sports and recreational activities you enjoy? Are you a fan of any sport that might not be considered typical of your native country? Do you follow the sources for any foreign teams? Might any of your recreational interests take you to another country?

Music, Arts, and Entertainment Connections
What global connections do you have among the music, arts, or forms of entertainment that you enjoy? Are any of your favorite artists from another country? Do you enjoy films or television programs from other countries? Do you enjoy films or television programs that are set in other countries?

Other Global Connections
What global connections can you find among the areas of your daily life? For instance, if you own a car, where was the car manufactured? Do you wear clothing that was made in another country? Do you use electrical devices or appliances that were manufactured in another country? Do your local decisions affect the global environment?